PROFESSIONAL OVERVIEW

Graham Brittain graduated from Virginia Polytechnic Institute & State University in 2020 with a B.S. in Biological Systems Engineering and a minor in Green Engineering. He has a variety of knowledge and experience in the Environmental Engineering field, primarily related to Watershed Science and Engineering. Graham worked as an undergraduate research assistant at Virginia Tech on gathering and analyzing sediment samples from watersheds in Southwestern Virginia. Types of analyses included particle size distributions and X-ray fluorescence testing for heavy metal pollutants. Additionally, he has internship experience assisting project managers on construction project cost estimations with the use of Planswift.

Graham began his career with ALL4 as a Staff Engineer in July 2020.
