

ELAINE NICOSIA CONSULTING SCIENTIST

---

CREENTIALS

- ◆ B.S., Environmental Sciences, University of California Riverside

---

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- ◆ 2021-present, ALL4 LLC, Consulting Scientist
- ◆ 2010-2021, JE Compliance Services, Associate II
- ◆ 2006-2010, UCR Plant Pathology Lab, Lab Assistant
- ◆ 2009-2010, State Water Quality Control Board, Santa Ana Region, Intern

---

TECHNICAL EXPERTISE

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| ✓ Business Emergency Plan and Chemical Disclosures    | ✓ Emergency Planning and Community Right- to-Know Act (EPCRA) Sections 312 and 313 reporting |
| ✓ Phase I Environmental Site Assessments              | ✓ EPCRA Compliance Audits  |
| ✓ Phase II Site Investigations                        | ✓ Proposition 65 Evaluations   |
| ✓ Spill Prevention, Control, and Countermeasure Plans | ✓ Risk Management Plans  |

---

PROFESSIONAL OVERVIEW

Elaine graduated from the University of California, Riverside with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Environmental Sciences in 2009. Elaine joined JE Compliance Services in 2010 and has worked on a variety of program areas such as environmental site assessments and investigations, risk management plans, stormwater compliance, spill prevention, control, and countermeasure plans, business emergency plan and EPCRA 312 and 313 reporting, Proposition 65 evaluations, and industrial wastewater discharge permitting. Elaine has experience working with clients in California, Nevada, Texas, Florida, Georgia, and Maryland.